

How to MOBI: Oral Exams

This documents gives some instructions on how we organize oral exams in the MOBI group and what you can do for an successful outcome.

Registration

- Register in FlexNow during official registration period
- Wait until we publish the exam dates
- Choose an exam date and ask for it by sending an e-mail to sek.mobi@uni-bamberg.de
- You will receive a notification with date and time

De-Registration

- Deregister in FlexNow during official deregistration period → no fail
- After that: Deregistration will result in a failed exam. It is very polite to let us know that you will not come so that we don't wait for you
- If you are ill, we need a doctor's certificate of the exam date → no fail

Preparation

- Actively participate in the exercises
- Talk, talk, talk! Best with other students
- Learn technical terms and how to explain them
- Compare related concepts and discuss their pros and cons with other students
- Apply your knowledge to use cases that were not part of the lecture

On the exam day

- Be there on time (best 10min before)
- Don't use heavy perfume
- Bring your student ID card

During the exam

- You can answer in English or German or a mixture of it
- You can ask for a German translation of English questions
- You may always ask back or ask for more details if you think that "with more information I could give a better answer"
